

Samuel Maubanc

Samuel Maubanc is General Manager at Liquid Gas Europe, the European LPG Association, which was formerly named AEGPL until September 2018.

Liquid Gas Europe is the voice and the face of the LPG industry at European level, representing national LPG Associations as well as distributors and equipment manufacturers from across Europe.

He started working for the European LPG Association in 2011. His main role is to coordinate the work of the association, manage its administration, and establish reliable and efficient communication channels with European Union policy makers and the wider policy community, on behalf of the European LPG sector.

Samuel has over ten years of experience in management and government relations, and has worked in these fields not only in Brussels but also in Tokyo.

Samuel is a French citizen and holds an Executive Master in Management from the Brussels Solvay Business School, and a Master in European Studies from the University of Aalborg, Denmark.
